CENSUS No 2

ENGLAND AND WALES, 1861.

GENERAL INSTRUCTION.

This Paper is to be filled up by the OCCUPIER or Person in charge of the dwelling.

If the house is let or sub-let to different Families or Lodgers, each OCCUPIER or LODGER must make a return for his portion of the house upon a SEPARATE PAPER.

(See Examples of the mode of filling up the Return.)

HOUSEHOLDER'S SCHEDULE.

Prepared under the direction of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, pursuant to the Act of 23 and 24 Vict., c. 64.

Parish or Township
City, Town, or Village or Hamlet
Street, Square, &c., of Hall
Number or Name of House
Name of Occupier

TO THE OCCUPIER.

You are requested to insert the particulars required on the other side, in the manner shown in the Examples, and which present the Heads of Enquiry, and the Forms of Return, in the Schedule of Public Buildings and receive the orders of Her Majesty The Queen in the 21st of August, 1860.

This Paper will be CALLED FOR on MONDAY, APRIL 8th, by the appointed Enumerator.

and it is desirable that you should have the answers written in the proper columns, by the morning of that day, in order that the progress may not be delayed. It will be his duty, while the Act is in operation, to assist you in the performance of your duties, and to convert all of you into Enumerators, if you may wish to be so.

Any persons authorized by you may write in the particulars, if you are yourself unable to do so.

Persons refusing to give correct information are liable to a Penalty of Five Pounds; and Enumerators are liable to a Penalty of Ten Pounds, on Conviction before a Justice of the Peace, and being convicted of having made a wilful and statement of age, or of any of the other particulars.

The Return is required to enable the Secretary of State to acquaint the Secretary Chancery, which is to show the exact numbers, sex and conditions of the people—this arrangement by Enumerators in different ranks, professions, and trades—their distribution over the country in villages, towns, and cities—their increase or decrease in the last ten years.

The Return will be made in duplicate only and each copy will be taken that the returns are natural for the gratification of curiosity.

Approved, LEWIS, Secretary of State.

No. 53

CENSUS OF THE ISLANDS IN THE BRITISH SEAS, 1861.

GENERAL INSTRUCTION.

This Paper is to be filled up by the OCCUPIER or Person in charge of the dwelling.

If the house is let or sub-let to different Families or Lodgers, each OCCUPIER or LODGER must make a return for his portion of the house upon a SEPARATE PAPER.

(See Examples of the mode of filling up the Return.)

INSTRUCTIONS for filling up the Column headed "RANK, PROFESSION or OCCUPATION."

The Superior Titles of PEERS and other Persons of RANK to be inserted, as well as any high office which they may hold. Magistrates, Aldermen, and other important public officers, to state their profession after their official title.

ARMY AND NAVY.—Add, after the rank, "Army," "Artillery," "Royal Navy," "Royal Engineers," "Marines," "East India Service," as the case may be. Officers on half-pay, or retired, to be so designated. Chaplains, and other Pensioners, to be so designated.

Persons in the CIVIL SERVICE to state the Department to which they are attached, after their rank; those on the Superannuation List to be so distinguished.

CLERGYMEN of the Church of England to return themselves as "Rector of——," "Vicar of——," "Curate of——," &c., or "without cure of souls." They are requested not to employ the indefinite term "Clerk." Roman Catholic Priests, and Ministers of Foreign Churches, to return themselves as such, and to state the name of the church or chapel in which they officiate. Dissenting Ministers to return themselves as "Independent Minister," "Baptist Minister," "Chapel," "Wesleyan Minister, of——," "Chapel," &c. Local or occasional preachers must return their ordinary occupation; but may add "Local Methodist preacher," &c., &c.

LEGAL PROFESSION.—Barristers, to state whether or not in actual practice; Officers of any Court, &c., to state the description of office and name of Court. The designation "Attorney" or "Solicitor" to be confined to those whose names are actually upon the Roll; Clerks, a Clerk in office, and not the Partner Solicitor's Managing Articled, or General Clerk.

Members of the MEDICAL PROFESSION to state the University, College, or Hall, of which they are Graduates, Fellows, or Licentiates; also whether they practise as Physician, Surgeon, Dentist, Oculist, General Practitioner, &c., or are "not practising."

PROFESSORS, TEACHERS, PUBLIC WRITERS, Authors, and Scientific men—to state the particular branch of Science or Literature which they teach or pursue; Artists, the art which they cultivate. Graduates should enter their degrees in the column.

PERSONS ENGAGED IN COMMERCE, as Merchants, Brokers, Agents, Clerks, Commercial Travellers, &c., to state the kind of business in which they are engaged, or the staple in which they chiefly deal. Members of the Stock Exchange, East India Merchants, &c., may be so described.

Commercial CLERK—always ask in what branch of business. [Note.—Clerks in the Civil Service, and in Solicitors' offices, should be distinguished as above directed.]

The term FARMER to be applied only to the occupiers of land. Example: "Farmer of 112 acres, employing 4 labourers and 2 boys;" the actual number of acres, and of labourers and boys, to be filled up. Farmers' sons, and others in all cases employed on the farm, or living with their parents or on the farm, may be returned—"Farmer's Son," "Farmer's Daughter," FARM SERVANTS employed in the Farmer's house must be described in his schedule as "Carter," "Dairymaid," &c., as the case may be.

An out-door LABOURER working on a farm, must be described as "Agricultural Labourer," "Shepherd," &c., in the Employer must, in all cases, be distinguished. Example: "Carpenter—Master, employing 9 men and 2 boys;" labouring always the number of persons of the trade in his employ, if any, on April 8th. In the case of Dyers, the number of persons employed in "Dyeing" and in "Scouring" to be separately stated. In the case of MANUFACTURES, and generally in the ARTS, the PRODUCT MADE or WORK, and the MATERIAL, are always to be distinctly expressed if they are not implied in the name, as in "Cotton-mill," "Brass-founder," "Silk-throwster." Where the trade is much subdivided, both TRADE and MEMBER are to be returned thus—"Watchmaker—Finisher," "Frame-Maker," &c.

ARTISANS and MECHANICS should invariably state their particular branch of art or business.

WEAVER should always write "Silk," "Worsted," "Cotton," &c., before this general term, so as to express distinctly the material which he weaves, thus—"Silk Weaver."

MESSENGERS, PORTERS, LABOURERS, SERVANTS, to be described as "Messenger," &c., to the name of their employer on the day of the Census.

A person following no Profession, Trade, or calling, and holding no public office, but deriving their income entirely from land, houses, mines, dividends, interest of money, annuities, &c., may describe himself as "Landowner," "Fundholder," "Proprietor of Iron Mines," "Proprietor of Houses," "Fund-holder," &c., as the case may be. Persons who have RETIRED FROM BUSINESS may be entered thus—"Retired Farmer," "Retired Grocer."

Persons in Almshouses, after being described as such, should state their previous occupations.

WORKER AND OTHERS to be entered as such, who are regularly employed from home, or who follow no business at home, to be distinctly recorded. Against the names of children, daily attending school, or receiving regular tuition at home, write "Scholar."
