INSTRUCTIONS

for completing Columns 2, 8, 12, and 13.

1. "Relationship to head of Household" (Column 2).—Any relative present in the dwelling on Census night who usually lives elsewhere should, for Census purposes, be described in Column 2 as "VISITOR," and not as "Cousin," "Aunt," "Sister-in-Law," &c.

2. "NATIONALITY" (Column 8).—(a) State at (i) whether Citizen of the U.K. and Colonies, Indian, Canadian, Spanish, Portuguese, etc.

(b) If a Citizen of the U.K. and Colonies, state at (ii) whether citizen by birth, descent, naturalization, registration, marriage, etc.

3. "OCCUPATION AND INDUSTRY" (Columns 12 and 13).—A member of a household who is chiefly occupied in giving unpaid help in a business carried on by the head of the household or other relative should state the occupation in Column 12 and should give the required particulars in Column 13 treating the head of the business as the employer.

In Columns 12 and 13 the occupation and the name, business and business address of the employer must be stated. The particulars concerning the employer are required solely for the purpose of identifying the business or industry, and will not be published. If the employer carries on more than one kind of business, manufacture or service, please state the particular branch of the employer's business in which the employee is occupied.

Subject to the special cases mentioned below the normal occupation should be stated. A person does not cease to have an occupation solely because he is for the time being unemployed; e.g., a carpenter remains a carpenter even though he is temporarily out of work. In column 12 therefore the normal occupation should be stated irrespective of whether the person is in work or out of work at the time. If a man who follows the calling of a carpenter is in work at Census time he will enter "Carpenter." If he happens to be unemployed at Census time he should enter "Carpenter temporarily unemployed" and the particulars given in Column 13 should be those of the last employer.

SPECIAL CASES.—Cases may occur where a man has not been employed at his original occupation for a very long time. The question then is—what is the occupation by which he is seeking to earn a livelihood? If he is still seeking a living at his original occupation, he should enter that occupation (adding "unemployed"). If, on the other hand, he has no prospect of making a living by that occupation he should state the occupation by which he is at present getting a livelihood.

HOW TO DESCRIBE THE PERSONAL OCCUPATION AND EMPLOYER'S BUSINESS.—Describe both fully and definitely. If the job is known in the trade or industry by a special name use that name; in this connection see the examples shown below.

LABOURER.—Do not use this term by itself. For an unskilled worker usually employed on one sort of work alone distinguish the sort of work done, as "Coal Labourer." If accustomed to work on different kinds of jobs, write "General Labourer."

DOMESTIC SERVANTS.—If in private service it will be sufficient to write the word "Private" only in column 13. But for Cooks, Waitresses, Chamber-maids, &c., employed in Hotels, Boarding Houses, the name, business and address of the employer must be stated.

EXAMPLES SHOWING THE KIND OF DESCRIPTION WHICH SHOULD BE GIVEN BOTH OF THE OCCUPATION AND THE INDUSTRY.
