NOTICE

1. The Census Order, 1966, made by His Excellency the Lieutenant Governor, provides (inter alia) that a Census shall be taken for the Isle of Man on the 24th day of April, 1966 in respect of—

- (a) all persons in the Isle of Man ; and
  - (b) all other persons (being persons usually resident in the Isle of Man) to whom paragraph (b) of article 1 or article 5 of the first column of the first schedule to the Order refer ;
- who are alive at midnight ending that day.

The returns for the purposes of the Census shall be made with respect to the classes of persons mentioned in the first column of the first schedule to the Order by the persons mentioned opposite each such class in the second column of that schedule.

Provided that any person claiming in the prescribed manner to make a confidential return shall, subject to the prescribed conditions, be deemed to be the person by whom the return is to be made with respect to himself.

2. The first schedule to the Order is set out on the back of this form.

3. A person who has applied in the prescribed manner to make a separate confidential return will not be liable to give information to the person responsible for making the return. In such case, the person responsible for making the return will only be liable to include in this return in respect of that person the particulars required in the first question within. (See note M)

4. This form of return has been prescribed by me as the return which shall be made by the persons mentioned in the second column of the first schedule to the Census Order, 1966, in respect of the classes of persons in the first column of that schedule.
