CENSUS OF POPULATION OF IRELAND, 1966.

EXPLANATORY NOTES

Under the Statistics Acts, 1926 and 1946, and the Statistics (Census of Population) Order, 1966, made thereunder, a return of all the particulars asked for on this form must be made by

- The head or other person acting as head of a private household in respect of all persons forming part of the household for Census purposes.
- The person in charge of a hotel, club, guest house, hostel, boarding house, lodging house, boarding school, college, convent, monastery, barrack, prison, hospital, county home, nursing home or other institution in respect of all persons who are to be included as occupants of the establishment for Census purposes.
- The Master or other person in charge of a vessel in any harbour, port, bay, lake, canal, river, etc., and generally in waters within the jurisdiction of Ireland in respect of persons who were aboard the vessel at midnight on the night of Sunday, 17 April, 1966, or who came on board on the morning of Monday, 18 April, 1966, not having been enumerated elsewhere.

The Census form will be called for as soon as possible after Census date by the Official Enumerator; in order that he may not be delayed it should be ready with answers written in on the morning of Monday, 18 April, 1966. If the answers are incomplete or inaccurate, the Enumerator has the authority to ask any questions necessary to enable him to complete the form correctly.

If a person whose duty it is to make a return or give information necessary for the completion of a return refuses to do so, or wilfully gives false information, or uses otherwise than for the purposes of making the return any information given for that purpose, he or she will be liable to the penalties prescribed in the Statistics Act, 1926.

The form should be kept for collection by the Official Enumerator. If, however, a family is going on holidays, moving to a new address, or leaving the residence unoccupied for any other reason after Census date and before the Official Enumerator calls to collect the completed form, the form should be sent by post to "The Director, Central Statistics Office, Census of Population Division, Griffith Barracks, Dublin, 8."

Particulars given on this Census form will be regarded as strictly confidential.

M. D. McCARTHY,

Director,

Central Statistics Office.

1. Name and surname. Column A.

Write the name and surname of each person who was alive at midnight on the night of Sunday, 17 April, 1966, and who, whether a member of the family, visitor, boarder, employee or other occupant passed that night in the dwelling of the household or institution or who arrived in the dwelling or institution on the morning of Monday, 18 April, 1966, not having been enumerated elsewhere.

Babies born at or before midnight on 17 April, 1966, should be included. If a baby has not yet been given a name write "baby" and the surname.

Particulars in respect of the head of the household should be entered on the first line of the form.

2. Relationship to head of household. Column B.

State whether "head," "wife," "son," "daughter," "mother," "daughter-in-law," "son-in-law," "visitor," "boarder," "employee," etc.

Anyone who has a more usual residence elsewhere should be described as "visitor," whether related to the head of the household or not.

3. Principal occupation. Column F.

An entry should be made in this column for every person aged 14 years or over. For each person normally working for payment or profit state in this column the precise occupation or calling at which the person usually works, even if at present unemployed. Vague or indefinite terms should not be used and the description should be sufficiently detailed to show exactly the kind of work done. (See Note 4).

If the person has more than one occupation, the principal occupation only, that is the occupation by which the living is mainly earned, should be stated.

For a person who is out of work and seeking work, state the usual principal occupation in this column.

For a person who is wholly retired from work, state the former principal occupation in this column.

NOTES

4. Notes on how various occupations should be described.

Agricultural occupations. Such descriptions as "Farmer," "Farm labourer," "Assisting on father's farm," "Farm manager," etc., should be used.

Non-agricultural occupations. If the job is known by a special name, use that name. The type of material worked in should be stated, where applicable. A machine operator should state the type of machine worked. Such terms as "Printer," "Merchant," "Driver," or "Factory worker" are not sufficiently precise. Instead use such descriptions as "Composer," "Shopkeeper," "Lorry driver," "Hosiery machine operator."

Managers, supervisors, foremen. The department or type of work managed or supervised should be stated.

Labourers. A labourer should be described fully where possible by the type of work done, e.g. "Builder's labourer," "Foundry labourer," "Dock labourer," "Road labourer." If normally engaged in labouring work at various jobs, write "General labourer."

Civil servants and local government employees. The grade should be stated.

Garda and Army. The rank should be stated.

Members of religious orders or other persons in religion who are engaged in teaching or other service. State in Column F whether "Christian Brother, Primary teacher," "Clergyman, Secondary teacher," "Nun, General hospital nurse," etc.

Teachers. The branch of teaching should be indicated, e.g. "Primary teacher," "Vocational teacher," "Music teacher," etc.

Nurses. The type of nursing in which employed should be indicated, e.g. "General hospital nurse," "Psychiatric nurse," "Maternity nurse."

Mechanics. The type of work done should be indicated, e.g. "Motor car mechanic," "Cycle mechanic," "Radio mechanic," "Aircraft mechanic," "Dental mechanic," "Typewriter mechanic," etc.

Domestic servants. Where possible the exact occupation, e.g. "Cook," "Housemaid," "Housekeeper," etc., should be stated.

5. Notes regarding certain other persons aged 14 years or over.

If at school or college, write "At school" in Column F adding "Primary," "Secondary," "Vocational," "Business College," etc., as the case may be. Leave Columns G, H and L blank.

If attending a University full-time, write "Student" in Column F (indicating the faculty, e.g. Medicine, Law, Arts, Experimental Science, Agricultural Science, Veterinary Science, etc.). Leave Columns G, H and L blank.

For a young person who has left school and is seeking work but has not yet had a job, write "Not yet at work" in Column F. Leave Columns G and H blank, but complete Columns K and L.

For housewives and other members of household mainly occupied in unpaid domestic duties at home, write "Home duties" in Column F. Leave Columns G and H blank but complete Columns K and L.

For other persons 14 years of age or over, not at school or college and not at work, who are mainly dependent on other persons or on their own private means, write "No occupation" or "Private means" in Column F. Leave Columns G and H blank but complete Columns K and L.

6. Employment Status. Column G.

For each person with a job state in this column whether the person, in his or her principal occupation, is an "employee," "employs others" (if he employs one or more persons for the purpose of his business), is "working on own account" (i.e. without paid employees), is "assisting relative" (i.e. not receiving a fixed wage or salary; if a fixed wage or salary is received, the person should be described as an "employee"), or is an "apprentice."

A person whose principal occupation is given as "Company Director" or "Managing Director," in Column F should be described as "employee" in this column.

Persons whose only employees are private domestic servants should not be given the description "employs others."

For a person who is out of work and seeking work, write "Out of work" in this column.

For a person who is wholly retired from work, write "Retired" in this column.

For other persons leave this column blank.

7. Employer and employer's business. Column H.

An entry should be made in this column for each person with a job. If the person has more than one job, these particulars should be in respect of the job by which the living is mainly earned, i.e. they should be consistent with the entry for "occupation" in Column F.

If the person is out of work, these particulars should relate to the last employer.

If an employer or person working on own account, state the nature of the business carried on.

In the case of farmers, the area (including that taken in conacre) of land farmed should be stated. In the case of farmers' relatives assisting and other farm workers the name and address of the farmer for whom they work and the area of the farm, in statute acres, should be stated.

In the case of a person wholly or mainly engaged in selling, indicate whether the business is wholesale or retail and state the type of commodity dealt in.

Where the person's employer is engaged in two or more businesses, state the precise branch of the business in which the person is employed and the address of place of work.

The nature of business should be described fully. Descriptions such as the following are insufficient by themselves:—"Factory," "manufacturer," "dealer," "merchant," "agent."

8. Agricultural Holdings. Column K.

Where the person is the rated occupier of agricultural land the area and the total rateable valuation (land and buildings) should be entered in this column.

In the case of farmers it should be noted that the particulars required in this column relate to the land of which they are the rated occupiers whereas in Column H the particulars relate to the land worked.

9. Education. Column L.

This section should be completed for each person aged 14 years or over who is no longer receiving full-time education. No entry should be made in respect of part-time education. Enter the age at which the person ceased full-time education and insert an X for each type of school, college, etc. attended, whether or not the full course was completed or a certificate obtained.

The four headings shown include the following types of school or college:—

Primary

National school; Convent national school; Monastery national school; Model national school; Special Irish national school; National school for handicapped children; Private school; Junior or preparatory school attached to a Secondary school; Industrial school.

Secondary

Secondary school; Secondary top of primary school.

Vocational, technical or commercial

Whole-time day continuation course; Whole-time technical course; School of Commerce; Secretarial college; School of domestic science; Agricultural school.

University or higher technical

Constituent colleges of the National University of Ireland; Dublin University; Maynooth College; College of Surgeons; National College of Art; College of advanced technology; Teachers' training college; Military training college; Major religious seminary.

If a person was educated in another country the X should be inserted according to the nearest equivalent type of educational institution attended in that country.
