Any Census Collector, or Occupier of a dwelling disclosing any particulars from a Census form is liable to a penalty of $100.

COMMONWEALTH OF AUSTRALIA

CENSUS, 30th JUNE, 1966 HOUSEHOLDER'S SCHEDULE

Instructions for filling in the Householder's Schedule and/or Personal Slip

Owing to the importance of the Census in providing information of great value to many organizations and individuals, it is confidently expected that you will endeavour to make it successful by answering all questions fully and accurately.

There are two Census forms, the Householder's Schedule (white) and the Personal Slip (blue). The Householder's Schedule is the principal form and generally, particulars of all persons who spent the night of 30th June, 1966 in the dwelling should be entered on that form, together with particulars of the dwelling itself. The Personal Slip is to be used only for special cases where some inmate of the dwelling objects to having his or her particulars entered on the Householder's Schedule. In that case the person who objects should fill in a separate Personal Slip, seal it in the special envelope provided and hand it to the Householder or person in charge of the dwelling for delivery UNOPENED to the Collector.

The occupier or person in charge of the dwelling is responsible for—

- (1) Filling in the particulars on the Householder's Schedule for the dwelling and for all persons in the dwelling.
- (2) Seeing that the Personal Slips issued to boarders, servants, &c., are delivered UNOPENED to the Collector.

NOTE: The name and sex of each person who has been issued with a Personal Slip should be entered on the Householder's Schedule also, and the words "Personal Slip" should be written in the column in which the name is written. A Personal Slip is not required for any person whose particulars are supplied on the Householder's Schedule.

If any person returned to or arrived at the dwelling on Friday, 1st July, without having been counted elsewhere, the name and particulars must be entered on the Schedule or a Personal Slip must be filled in by that person.

Where a private house is shared or a building is occupied in apartments or flats, each share, apartment or flat is a dwelling and requires a separate Householder's Schedule. An hotel, motel, boarding house, or institution is to be treated as one dwelling.

Both the Householder's Schedule and the Personal Slip should be completed in ink—not pencil.

Eight columns are provided for particulars of persons in the dwelling. If there are more than eight persons please use an additional schedule or schedules. One column must be filled in for each person (including children) in the dwelling. Against each question on the Schedule write the answer in the proper space in each person's column. The first column should be used for the head of the household, if present; then the others in order for wife, children, relatives, visitors, boarders, domestic servants, other employees, &c.

The householder or person in charge of any dwelling must answer the questions which the Collector asks for Census purposes. There is a penalty of $20 for not answering and a penalty of $100 for knowingly making an untrue statement either to the Collector or on a Census form.
