NOTICE: You are required by Public Law No. 5-77 to answer the 1994 Census. Your answers will be kept confidential by that same law. Only sworn Census employees may see your answers. Your information will only be used for statistical purposes.

The 1994 Census of Population and Housing must count every person at his or her "usual residence." This means the place where the person lives and sleeps most of the time. This includes:

- Everyone who usually lives here such as family members, housemates and roommates, foster children, roomers, boarders, and live-in employees.
- Persons who are temporarily away on a business trip, on vacation, in a general hospital.
- Students who live here while attending school.
- Newborn babies born on or before September 16, 1994.
- Persons who stay here most of the week even if they have a home somewhere else.
- Persons with no other home who were staying here on September 16, 1994.
- Persons who usually live somewhere else.
- Persons who are confined to an institution.
- Students who live somewhere else while attending school.
- Persons in the Armed Forces who live somewhere else.
- Persons who stay somewhere else most of the week.

OFFICE USE ONLY

COVERAGE Is [ ] 1 [ ] 1 1 1

1b. When you told me the names of the persons living here on September 19, 1994, did you leave anyone out because you were not sure if the person should be listed - for example, someone temporarily away on a business trip or vacation, a newborn baby still in the hospital, or a person who stays here once in a while and has no other home?

1. Yes - Determine if you should include the person based on the instructions for question 1a. If no, include the person and enter the person's number.

3. No

1c. When you told me the names of the persons living here on September 19, 1994, did you include anyone even though you were not sure that the person should be listed - for example, a visitor who is staying here temporarily or a person who usually lives somewhere else?

3. No

If EVERYONE is staying here only temporarily and usually lives somewhere else, mark [x] in this box - and ask:

1d. Whose do these people usually live?

If the usual residence is within the FSM, enter the State, Municipality, and Village.

With the State, Municipality, and Village.

If the usual residence is not within the FSM, enter the country.
