NOTES AND EXAMPLES FOR SCHEDULE W.10

The schedule W.10 which accompanies this leaflet is being issued only to 10 per cent of the householders in Wales. The allocation of these 10 per cent schedules has been made on a numerical, automatic and quite impersonal basis. This arrangement will provide sufficient information on certain topics to be used for the country as a whole. These are the topics contained in columns N to T of the schedule. By this arrangement 90 per cent of the householders are relieved from giving these particulars.

In your case all these particulars are needed. Your co-operation is sought in providing accurate answers to these questions so that reliable statistics for the whole population may be obtained.

The notes will help you to give the particulars asked for. There is a reference to the number of each note in the column headings on the schedule. Please read the appropriate note and study the examples in this leaflet before you fill in the answers.

CONFIDENTIALITY

No information about any individual person, family or dwelling, will be given to anyone not employed on the Census.

- (a) Cold water tap—Sole use. (c) Fixed bath—Shared.
(b) Hot water tap—None. (d) Watercloset—Shared.

- (a) "Years" means completed years, e.g., for 4 years 11 months write "4 years".
(b) Give the whole period since the person moved to the address indicated in column C even if he or she has since been temporarily away, e.g. owing to National Service, other war service, or evacuation.

12. End of full-time education (Column O)

For persons not now receiving full-time education, but intending to resume it later, state the age at which education was discontinued. For students actually enrolled in a course of full-time study which involves spending part of the time in employment, make no entry in this column.

Industry and Occupation (Sections R, S and T)

14. In employment means that the person had a job during the week ending Saturday, 22nd April, 1961, even if he was away from work because of holidays, sickness, strikes, etc. That is, a sick person is in employment if his job is waiting for him when he gets well.

For persons temporarily laid off by their employer throughout the week, answer the questions in Section R and not in Section S.

For persons who retired or became out of work during the week, complete Section S and not Section R.

"Employment" includes any service in the Armed Forces, and also jobs at which a person worked for only a few hours; e.g. for a housewife who helped in her husband's shop or did some office cleaning answer the questions in Section R and not Section T.

For persons who are at school or university full-time during term answer Section T and not Section R, even if they did paid work during the holidays.

15. "Part-time" means less than the normal hours in the employment. Employment which is normally full-time but which was interrupted by sickness, holidays, short-time working, strikes or lockouts, or which was started or stopped part way through the week, should be returned as "full-time" in Section R, column (d).

Hours worked. For part-time workers whose employment was interrupted by sickness etc., state the hours usually worked.

16. More than one employment. If the person changed his employment during the week give details of the employment in the later part of the week.

If the person normally follows more than one employment during the week give details of the main employment only.

17. For sick persons who were off work but still have their job write "full-time" or "part-time" in Section R, column (d), according to whether they would have worked full or part-time if they had not been ill.

If they have been discharged by their employer answer the questions in Section S and not in Section R.

18. For persons who have never had full-time employment, write in Section S details of the last part-time employment. If the person is looking for a first job, write "Out of work" in Section S, column (f), and "None" in columns (g) and (h).

19. Employer and employer's business.

These details are required only to help in classifying the industry or service. Describe the business fully and try to avoid using abbreviations or initials.

The following are examples of terms insufficient by themselves:—
Manufacturer, Merchant, Agent, Broker, Factor, Dealer, Engineering, Iron Works, etc.

20. Employs others means having one or more employees other than his (her) relatives living in the same household.

21. Occupation. Full and precise details of the occupation should be given in columns (b) or (h). Terms such as scientist, technician, engineer, machinist, foreman, inspector, checker, civil servant, are too vague and should not be used by themselves. Managers or foremen should give the department where applicable; civil servants and other public officials should give their rank and the department or branch in which they are serving.

If a job is known in the trade or industry by a special name, use that name.

22. Apprentices, trainees, etc. An entry should be made at (ii) of column (b) only if persons are undergoing training for a period fixed in advance, leading to recognition as a skilled worker or technician and/or to a recognised technical, commercial or professional qualification or managerial post. Boys undergoing probationary training who have not yet entered into formal apprenticeship or learnership should be excluded.

23. Domestic servants. If in private domestic service give the occupation (e.g. Cook) in columns (b) or (h) but write only "Private" in columns (a) or (g). But complete these columns as required by the questions for persons employed in hotels, restaurants, boarding houses, etc.

24. Place of work:

Persons with no regular place of work such as sales representatives, inspectors, and building workers, who do not work daily from or at a fixed address or depot should state "No fixed place". Those working daily from or at a fixed address or depot e.g., certain transport workers, and building workers employed on a site for a long period, should give the address of the depot or site or other fixed address.

Dock workers registered under the National Dock Labour Scheme, who are in possession of a Pay Voucher Book issued by the National Dock Labour Board, should give the address of the call stand or control point where they are required to prove attendance. Registered dock workers not issued with a Pay Voucher Book by the Board, and other dock workers should give the name and address of the dock or wharf at which they are usually employed.

Seamen should give the name of their ship and the port in which it is lying.

25. Absent members of the household (Part III)

Include in Part III only those persons who usually live in this household but are temporarily away, e.g. include a schoolboy who lives at home during the holidays but is now away at boarding school, a son away on National Service or any one temporarily away on his job, on holiday or in hospital (including a new-born baby).

Do not include in Part III any one who is living in an institution such as an old people's home where he is staying permanently or for many months.
